Chapter 1 by xCringe

There was this girl named Nancy, but was called BananaNancy. She is an awkward child, about to go into college...

Chapter 2 by xCringe

BananaNancy stepped inside her dorm at nine thirty. "I don't have a life." She sighs as she threw her stuff on the bed. She looked out the window sadly as she watched a fraternity spray paint someone sleeping on a bench. "Looks like we're gonna be roomies!" A girl squealed. "Who are you?" BananaNancy asked. "Oh, sorry, got a little to excited there." The girl said. "A little?" BananaNancy said sarcastically. "Well, anyways," the girl said, "I'm Hailey, we're roommates."

Chapter 3 by SaintSayaka

BananaNancy was unwilling to offer her name to the girl, though she figured they'd have to come around to that eventually. She shuffled uncomfortably. A small white lie wouldn't hurt, right? It would have to do. BananaNancy couldn't live down the shame of saying her real name to this girl.

"Hannah," she replied, "my name is Hannah. Please don't call me BananaNancy!"

"Hannah, huh?" Hailey approached the door and closed it. Her shoulders were tense. "Are you sure about that?"

BananaNancy's breath caught in her throat. "Absolutely positive."

"Bad mistake, BananaNancy." Hailey turned around - or did she? A massive creature with charred features stood where Hailey once was, its face drawn and sickly. BananaNancy croaked in surprise and threw herself back.

"Never lie to the reaper, BananaNancy. Or else you'll pay." The creature slowly approached her, its arms outstretched.
